Re: Roundy's Pre-Qualification Contractor/Supplier Application

Dear Susanne M. Hogan:

Roundy's Supermarkets, Inc. ("Roundy's"), the parent company of Mariano's, has received your submission in response to the Pre-Qualification Contractor/Supplier Application. I am pleased to inform you that your firm has been approved as a pre-qualified participant in Roundy's Pre-Qualification Program.

This determination was made based on the information provided in your initial response and subsequent information provided by your company. Should there be any significant change in your business information submitted, you are obligated to notify us for review.

Your pre-qualification status is valid through January 31, 2017 with options to extend as determined by Roundy's (unless Roundy's determines in its sole discretion that you are no longer qualified prior to that date).

As a pre-qualified contractor and/or supplier, as applicable, your company will be placed on a listing of pre-qualified companies. Your company profile and contact information will be provided to the developer and/or the selected general contractor. You will also be invited to attend outreach sessions and Mariano's construction-related workshops. The intention of the Roundy's Pre-Qualification Program is to assist your company in understanding our internal construction related bidding process and to assist the developer and/or the selected general contractor in determining which contractors/suppliers present the qualifications and capabilities to bid and potentially perform on various Mariano's projects. Your status as a Pre-qualified contractor and/or supplier, as applicable, does not guarantee a contract with Roundy's or any of its subsidiaries, developers and/or their contractors. All contract awards will be subject to the requirements in the developer's and/or the selected general contractor's solicitation. Additional information such as current corporate financials and documentation which is subject to expiration dates such as contractor-related certifications, licenses, MBE and/or WBE certification letters, insurance, and performance and payment bonding as may be required, must be provided upon request.

Roundy's appreciates your patience and participation in our Pre-Qualification Contractor/Supplier process. Should you have any questions, please contact Alicia Garcia-Abner of Trinal, Inc., whose firm is the Corporate Diversity Consulting firm for Roundy's. As you are aware, representatives from Trinal, Inc. contacted representatives from your organization during this process. Mrs. Garcia-Abner can be reached at 312-738-0500 or via email at AliciaGarcia-Abner@trinalinc.com.

Best Regards,

Derrick Ahler
